* As of September 30, 2024, pursuant to the new regulatory requirements, this index has been added to represent the broad-based securities market index.

How did the Fund perform in the last year?

Class I Shares underperformed its benchmark, the ICE BofA U.S. High Yield Constrained Index, for the 12-month period ending September 30, 2024.

Detractors from Fund performance for the reporting period included security selection within the transportation, technology and electronics, and retail sectors. A longstanding allocation to structured credit, which is managed by SEI Investments Management Corporation, boosted Fund performance. Additional contributors to Fund performance included an underweight position and security selection within the leisure sector, and an overweight and security selection within the health care sector.

Among Fund managers, Ares Capital Management II LLC underperformed the Fund's benchmark due to an underweight and selection within the telecommunications sector and security selection within basic industry. Benefit Street Partners, LLC underperformed due to security selection within the telecommunications sector and underweight exposure and security selection within technology and electronics. Brigade Capital Management, LP's underperformance was attributable to security selection within the transportation and technology and electronics sectors. J.P. Morgan Investment Management, Inc. outperformed due to security selection within the capital goods and telecommunications sectors. T Rowe Price Associates, Inc.'s underperformance resulted from security selection within the capital goods sector and an underweight position and security selection within health care.

Regarding the use of derivatives during the reporting period, the Fund employed currency forwards to hedge the currency risk of a position. The currency forwards did not have a significant impact on Fund performance.
